

TIMING HOMEWORK

Learning to manage time can help you with your homework. Pick one of your homework assignments for today. Take a guess at how long it will take you to complete it.

Assignment name: _____

How long do you think it will take to complete? Hours Minutes

Have someone time how long it actually takes, using a timer or a watch.

How long did it actually take you to complete it? Hours Minutes

How close was your guess?

Why do you think this happened? _____

If it actually took you longer than you thought, why do think this happened? What could you have done to improve your final time?

Try this worksheet again with another assignment on a different day. Soon you will have a good idea of how long you need to complete your assignments, and you will have the chance to think about how you could be more efficient and productive.
